FADONA is a state chapter of NADONA, the National Association Directors of Nursing Administration in Long-Term Care

WHAT IS FADONA?

FADONA/LTC is a coalition of directors and assistant directors of nursing in Florida's skilled nursing homes, assisted living facilities and skilled-based, home health care agencies.

Its primary goal is to ensure that the residents entrusted to them receive the highest possible quality care.

WHAT ARE FADONA'S OBJECTIVES?

FADONA is committed to:

1. Being a source of mutual encouragement, counsel and support for all directors of nursing in LTC,
2. Promoting a more positive public image of the long-term care industry,
3. Having a positive impact on regulatory agencies by becoming involved in related legislation,
4. Providing seminars, workshops and educational opportunities on pertinent issues in order to promote a well-informed membership,
5. Encouraging institutions of higher learning to tailor their academic emphasis to include specific gerontological nursing preparation and encouraging its potential professionals to choose this specialty as a career, and
6. Supporting and fostering the objectives of NADONA.

WHY SUPPORT FADONA?

Nursing administration in long-term care is unique. The issues that concern directors of nursing are complex, challenging and constantly changing.

Directors of nursing in long-term care need the support and encouragement of one another as well as from other allied professionals, if they are to successfully address these issues.

ARE THERE ANY SPECIAL REQUIREMENTS?

PATRON membership in FADONA is open to any interested professional, organization or firm involved in providing services or products to the long-term care industry.

HOW MUCH ARE PATRON MEMBER DUES?

PATRON member dues are $175 per year.
